Carl Cook Killed in Action

Pvt. Carl R. Cook and Wife.

Mrs. Carl Cook, 223 E. Edgerton St., Hicksville, Ohio, received the following telegram April 3:

"Deeply regret to inform you that your husband, Pvt. Carl Cook, U.S.M.C.R. was killed in action 17 March 1945 at Iwo Jima Volcano Islands in the performance of his duty and service of his country. When information is received regarding burial you will be notified. To prevent possible aid to our enemies do not divulge the name of his ship or station. Please accept my heart-felt sympathy. Letter follows."

Signed — A. A. Vandegrift
Lieut. General USMC. Commandant of the Marine Corps.

Carl was born Dec. 18, 1925 in Jackson township, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook. He attended school until his second year in High School. He worked for Lester Baker constructing roads for a time, then went to farming and after his marriage March 29, 1943 to Joan Fortney, of Hicksville, Ohio, he took his young bride to his home on the Todd Kosht farm north of St. Joe on Highway No. 1. After a short time he moved to Hicksville and worked at the Handle Factory. He later worked at the International Harvester Co. where he was working when he enlisted in the Marines.

Carl entered the Service on March 4, 1944, and took his boot training at Camp Elliott, San Diego, California, from there he went to Camp I. H. Pendleton, Oceanside, California, after which he was shipped out for active duty, having received only four months of training.

When a boy of 13 years, Carl accepted Christ and on Feb. 20, 1938, he was buried with his Lord in baptism by Milton Fronsoe. Carl was true to his trust until his death.

Joan has been a faithful wife and stayed by his side until he left the States. The last letter she received from Carl was written March 15, and as we talked to her we looked at a beautiful bouquet of roses which Carl had sent her for Easter, mute evidence of his undying love for her.

Carl leaves a heart-broken family of wife, brothers, sisters, father, step-mother, numerous relatives and a host of friends. Our prayers are for comfort and strength for this family in this dark hour.

Carl has a brother, Don, who is serving his country in France.

It is with broken hearts that we place a second gold star on our Service Flag, the first was Bob Larkin.

CLOSING DATES FOR SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

On account of snow-blocked roads that interfered with sessions of some of the district schools of DeKalb County, different closing dates are announced by Supt. Carl F. Stallman.

Friday, April 20, will be the last day of school in Keyser, Newville, Richland, Spencer, Stafford, and Union townships, also in Moore school.

Tuesday April, 24, will be the last day in Hopewell school, Wilmington township.

Monday, April 23, is the last day in Franklin township.

Wednesday, April 25, is the closing date for Concord township.

Closing of school in Fairfield, Butler, Jackson, Smithfield, and Troy townships will be delayed until Friday, April 27th.

The final examinations in most schools will be held Wednesday, April 18.

No closing exercises are planned.

We have some husbands and wives in our congregation that have their birthdays in the same month. Those that we know about are: John and Lena Platter, Lyle and Alta Platter, Sam and Blanch Tomlinson, and Floyd and Georgia Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weener ran their car into the telephone pole at the sharp corner in Newville by the former Ivan Smith home on March 23. Mrs. Weener suffered a deep scalp wound and Mr. Weener was badly bruised.

THANK YOU, DON COOK

The following is a poem from Pfc. Don Cook, in France. We feel no words of ours can adequately explain about the poem and give some information as to his whereabouts as his letter, so we are publishing both letter and poem herewith:

7th Army in France. again. My job is a heavy one
2, 22, '45 and we sometimes get into

Dear Mrs. Strong:

"I'm just one of many who are so very grateful to you and 'your crew' for your wonderful work on such a superb paper, and very patiently await its arrival each month. I'll have to take this means (I prefer others) to thank you, completely, and to send my contribution in the hope that some may find as much entertainment and sentiment in this as I. Personally, I think it would be fine to print in the paper for the benefit of the G. I's. This, I'm sorry to say, is not any work of mine, but if it is God's will to give me power to write, I'd try to write just such a piece as this.

"As you might have noticed, I've enjoyed two days vacation in Paris and brought back a few souvenirs. I had a great time and am back on the job quite a jam. I am on a tank recovery unit and play the part of a mechanic when I'm not busy. My job as an assistant driver and radio operator does not keep me as busy as it does dirty and greasy. We recover everything from bicycles to tanks and are kept pretty busy when the battalion is in battle.

"I hope the time isn't too far distant to hope to walk into that little church on the hill and meet ALL the children of Christ that were present two years ago, when I left plus all all those who entered service before I did and those who have joined the church since.

"May God bless you and guide you in your great work.

"I beg to remain,

"Sincerely yours,
Don Cook."

MY DAD

"Just do your best, my son," he said,
"And help to win the fight.
My heart will ache while you're away,
And I'll pray for you each night."

He didn't cry as mothers would,
But pride shined on his face;
For he'd sent his youngest off to war
To beat the "Master's race."

He'll watch the mail each day for news
To tell him of his son,
His big blue eyes will watch with pride
For every battle won.

He'll not complain because his gas
Is running kind of low,
What he saves will help his son
To hit a harder blow.

And when day is done, I can see him now,
Down on his bended knees,
His graying head bent in silent prayer
For me across the seas.

Remember, Dad, that we who die
Will not have died in vain,
Like Him who died on Calvary's Cross,
We'll die for mankind's gain.

May God bless you and Guide you always.
Until we meet again, Best Wishes,

From France and Don Cook.

I Know That My Redeemer Liveth

Scripture Lesson: 2 Timothy 1: 8-12 and Job 19: 25.

A beautiful hymn has been written about the cardinal facts of the Gospel expressed by these inspired writers. Because of its timeliness I want to use it as the basis of our thinking together this month.

We too can say: "I know that my Redeemer liveth." We know it because of the testimony of eye witnesses to whom Jesus appeared after His resurrection. Not merely to a few, but to many. First to Mary as she came to His tomb early on the first day of the week. (Mark 16: 9.) Next to the two on the Emmaus Road, and so excited were these two that they returned immediately to Jerusalem to tell the disciples. (Luke 24: 13ff.)

Such wonderful and astonishing news taxed the credulity of the disciples to the point that they doubted if it were true. But the Lord of Glory could foresee that there would be unbelief among them and in the world and nothing was left to chance. He appeared to the ten as they sat at meat, Thomas being absent, and they would hardly believe their own eyes. Thomas, returning after Jesus had gone, would not believe it. But just one week later the Lord returned and offered His nail pierced hands and His wounded side as evidence to Thomas and he cried: "My Lord and my God." Later He appeared to seven of the disciples who had gone fishing, but He did not rest the proof of His resurrection there. Paul tells us in the first Corinthian Letter that He was seen of over "five hundred brethren at once." (I Cor. 15: 6.)

Yes, I know that my Redeemer liveth, for the Jews would have given most anything to be able to produce a dead Jesus and silence the Apostles. Three millions of Jews were at Jerusalem at the season of the Passover and the Apostles could not have hidden the body. Neither could they have stolen it, as some claim, because of the Roman guard at the tomb. His appearances to them and their doubt prove conclusively that they, least of all, expected a resurrection. Again, I know that my Redeemer liveth because it could not be successfully disputed at the time. When Paul was before Agrippa and Festus accused him of being mad, Paul said "I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For the King knoweth of these things, before whom I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner." (Acts 26: 25, 26.)

We can say with Job, "I know that my Redeemer liveth, and on the earth again shall stand." Job saw through the eye of faith, not having the certain promises given personally by that Redeemer to us. We have the Lord's own word that He is coming again. "I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go, . . . I will come again." (John 14: 2, 3.) I know that He shall again stand upon the earth because His Word abideth forever. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my Word shall not pass away." (Matthew 24: 35.) And in that Word we have His promise that "the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the arch angel, and with the trump of God. . . ." (I Thessalonians 4: 16.)

I know also, as the hymn sets forth, that life He giveth, because His blessed Word says " . . . the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." (I Thessalonians 4: 16, 17.) This will be a resurrection to an everlasting life, for Jesus said, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my Word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life. . . ." (John 5: 24.) "When Christ, who is our life shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory." (Colossians 3: 4.)

In the words of another hymn, "Standing on the Promises that Cannot Fail," we shall understand that "grace and power are in His hand." "For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." (John 1: 17.) The law could only bring conviction and condemnation, but through the grace of Jesus, "there is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in" Him. (Romans 8: 1.) That grace is freely bestowed on all who believe "justifying us from all things from which we could not be justified by the law of Moses." (Acts 13: 39.)

"Let us therefore come boldly up to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." (Hebrews 4: 16.) And through the power thus supplied we can say with Paul, "I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me," (Philippians 4: 13.) No matter what your sin may be, or how weak you feel yourself to be, He who has "all power in heaven and on earth," and has the keys of death and the grave is able to do for you all He did for the Apostle who in our text said, "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day." He is able because He is "the Author of eternal salvation to all that obey Him." (Hebrews 5: 9.) Is your salvation in His hands?

—Your Sky Pilot.

The Missionary Society met Tuesday evening, April 3 with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Platter.

Albert Thimlar, a farmer living near Newville, is suffering from first degree burns about his face and hands sustained when the radiator of his tractor exploded Thursday afternoon while plowing.

The sexton has commenced work in Riverview Cemetery. Lot owners should pay their assessment NOW and not wait to be notified by card. Wages are higher this year and all assessments should be paid promptly.

SMITH'S TRUCK IN SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Theodore Rollin Stonum, 34, 18702 Rowe Street, Detroit, lost his left arm between the elbow and shoulder when his automobile was side swiped by a truck on U. S. route 24, two miles east of Defiance, July 14, at 1:30 a.m.

Stonum, a mechanic, was west bound in his car, driving with his left elbow resting on the sash of the open window.

An east bound truck, he said, swerved over the center line and raked the side of his car to mangle his arm.

He was accompanied by his wife, Irene, 34; their two children, Bernard, 6, and Karen, 3; a brother Sylvester, 26, and sister Leona, 27, all of Detroit.

They applied a tourniquet to his arm and drove to Defiance hospital, where doctors amputated the injured arm.

State patrolmen who investigated said the left front fender of Stonum's car was damaged, the door scraped and the door handle ripped away.

The driver of the poultry truck involved in the accident was located Monday evening, at Newville.

He is D. O. Wasson, 25, driver for Ivan Smith, who operates the store at Newville.

Acting on information supplied by Mert Moser, bread truck driver for Brown's Bakery at Defiance, state patrolmen and county officers visited the driver and the truck owner, Monday evening at Newville. They instructed them to come to Defiance Tuesday night.

Charges, if any, will be filed later, it was said, after Wasson and Smith talk to officers and the injured man at Defiance.

Wasson, the truck driver, works for Smith on week ends, and is employed during the week by the Ohio Power Co. at Hicksville, Ohio.

He was accompanied by Cloy Beree of rout 1, Butler, when their truck and the Stonum automobile side-swiped.

Stonum's arm was so badly crushed that it was deemed necessary to amputate it.

Cpl. James White of the state patrol, Sheriff John K. Bridenbaugh, Deputy Donald V. Kehnast and Mr. Moser went to Newville, Monday night. They reported that Wasson claimed he had stopped a short distance beyond the crash scene.

He said damage to chicken crates on his truck compelled him to readjust them, and that when he returned to the accident scene, the car was gone.

The Detroit party had stated they remained at the scene about five minutes while a tourniquet was being applied to Stonum's arm, and then drove to the hospital.

Wasson said the crash killed between 600 and 700 pounds of poultry and ripped out slats from several crates.

Moser, the Brown's Bakery truck driver, was in Newville, Monday, on his regular route, when he got into conversation with Mr. Smith, owner of the poultry truck.

Moser told him of the accident near Defiance, and Smith replied that one of his drivers had reported to him an accident in that vicinity on Saturday morning.

He gave Moser permission to report to Defiance officers and suggest the officers communicate with him.

Just what will be the outcome of the accident remains to be seen.

It is stated that at the scene of the wreck broken crate slats and other indications seem to verify the report of the two men who were on the truck.

RECEIVES DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS AWARD

Earl A. Miller, Aviation Radio-man Third Class, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller of near Butler, has received the Award of Distinguished Flying Cross: Citation of the medal reads as follows: For distinguishing himself by heroism and extraordinary achievement while participating in aerial flight. As a member of the aircrew of Ensign Farmer, Miller participated in a gallant attack upon a large task force of Japanese... navy in the South-Pacific Area... The coolness and determination which Miller displayed during this attack though subjected to intense anti-aircraft fire was superb. The superior skill and magnificent teamwork he displayed as a member of this combat crew materially contributed to the success of the attack which resulted in severe damage being inflicted upon ships of the enemy fleet. His actions were in accordance with the highest traditions of the Navy of the United States.

Miller is now at Louisiana State Normal College starting Navy pilot training, after being selected as a Naval Air Cadet, while on combat duty.

The Youth Rally was held at the Lake James Christian Assembly July 16. The youth of DeKalb County and surrounding communities were there 600 strong. Because of the enormous task of counting individual groups, it was decided to eliminate this from the program for this time and so Newville returned with the plaque for another month. It is estimated that Newville had close to 50 present. Lee Maynard brought the message of the evening. Weenie sandwiches and dixie cups were served to all present by the Christian Assembly.

DAVID DICKERHOOF SUES FOR DIVORCE

David Dickerhoof, who has just been honorably discharged from the Army, has filed a divorce complaint in the DeKalb Circuit Court against his wife, Lucille Dickerhoof. They were married December 23, 1937 and he claims they separated November 19, 1943. David says his wife refused to live with him any longer. His attorney is C. E. McClintock.

SOLDIERS IN OUR MIDST

Donald Foust arrived home July 16 on a fourteen-day furlough. He will go to a camp near Camp Riley, Kansas, for further assignment when he leaves here.

David Dickerhoof returned to Butler July 12 happily displaying an honorable discharge badge. He has been discharged because of trench feet. He expects to make life an uncertainty for the fish this summer.

James Mendenhall arrived in the States June 30 and at his aunt's home in Cleveland, July 4. He is now visiting in the McClish home. Having been a prisoner in a German prison camp, he would ordinarily have received an honorable discharge, but since he is in the medical personnel, he is too badly needed and so will be assigned to one of the General Hospitals in the United States after his 76-day furlough.

Woodrow Stark arrived in Newville July 16. He has a thirty-day furlough. He has no idea where he will be stationed after he reports for duty August 16.

John Harter leaves July 28 for Phoenixville, Penn., where he will have some glasses made and hopes to receive his honorable discharge in about three weeks.

Bill Harter arrived home July 26. We have no further details as this goes to press.

Kenneth Caff took his preinduction examination July 16. The time to make friends is before you need them.

PRIVATE (???) JONES

With a horde of men he drives
a jeep.

With a mob of chaps he tries to sleep.

With a regiment he drills all day.

With a Co. he'll eat and play.

Men to left and men to right.

Men around him day and night.

The Army--he can take it--see,

But the thing that murders he,

The irony that stabs his bones,

Is this--they call him PRIVATE Jones.

I understand he drinks a good deal.
Oh, yes, he even had to have a bridge put in his mouth.

OVER THE BACK FENCE

During one of our storms the first of July, lightning struck the Clark Webster house, but no fire was started.

Mrs. Garcille Scoby is home now from Fort Bragg, North Carolina, where she was visiting with her husband.

Miss Sylvia Washler arrived home July 13 from Muncie, Indiana, where she has been attending Ball State Teacher's College. She is at home for her summer vacation.

Clara Brunson is at home in Newville again after spending some time in the Clayton Feters home in Garrett.

Grant Strong leaves July 31, for service in the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jennings and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Washler.

Mr. and Mrs. Best were teaching classes at Lake Region for two weeks in July. Mr. Best also conducted the chapel services at which thirteen confessions were made resulting in baptisms. They spent a week before that at Lake James Christian Assembly. Brother Best left July 26 for Bremen, Georgia, where he will conduct a two week meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Meade Baker have gone to live in the Christian Old People's Home in Saint Louis. This makes fine company for Harry Hendershot, who has been living there for a year now.

A few church people helped John Harter tear down the old house on his lot in Newville and tear out a few trees in preparation for the new home he will build on his return home.

Harry Strong was surprised to have Bill Monroe and Donald Freeburn call on him recently. They are also stationed at Camp Robinson. Lester Black is in the same camp and has been confined to the hospital with a sore throat. He is better now.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Because our printer is putting a new cement floor in his place of business, he cannot print our paper this time. In order to keep the Bugler coming to you as regular as possible, we are using the mimeograph the Church bought for Church bulletins etc., to print this paper.

A LETTER FOR YOU

Dear Sam:

Wheat and oats harvest is in full swing now. Some farmers are finding it necessary to harvest their oats while the wheat waits. The oats is going down fast and in places looks like a roller had been run over it. The corn is mostly past the cultivating stage now. Corn is late this year because of too much rain when it was planted and in many cases lack of fertilizer to hurry it along.

We have had enough rain to keep the lawn mowers busy. Newville is beautiful now with its green lawns, green gardens, green trees, and many-colored flowers nestled in the green background. Alfred Smith has solved the lawn mowing business. He has two pet lambs that do a very nice job keeping the grass and weeds down. Alfred doesn't have enough wind to run a lawn mower this summer and he feels happy to have solved the problem this way.

Mr. Whitney has improved his property (the former Cloy Beree home) by putting white shingles on his house.

Helen Smith hasn't had time to get into mischief this summer. She has been mowing the lawn and keeping the weeds out of the garden for her father who is in Fort Wayne.

Floyd Taylor had a very narrow escape July 2 when his car caught fire in the floor under his feet. He was able to save the car by quick action on his part, but it was badly damaged.

Do you remember how you used to have to slow down for the bridge on No. 1 going north from Saint Joe just before you reached No. 8? Well, the road trucks hauled dirt from Edgar Lysher's hill on 101 and filled it in on both sides. When it is hard surfaced, there will be no slowing down for that place again. Your friend, David

HOMEcoming HELD <sup>5</sup> AUGUST SIXTH

The Homecoming was greeted with rain and a cold wind. After Bible School, the seats, pulpit, piano, and communion service were moved into the Church building for the remaining services of the day. Due to the wet and cold weather, we had a poorer attendance than usual.

Judge Carlin was confined to the hospital, so was unable to teach the adults. Isaac Cosper taught the combined adult classes, and Homer Casebere taught the Loyal Sons and Daughters. Mary Sanders, of Angola, conducted the song services of the day and sang two solos. In the afternoon, a male quartette from Butler gave two special numbers. Brother Russell Martin, of Miamisburg, Ohio, delivered two rousing messages. The morning message was "The World's Greatest Memorial," and the afternoon message was "Three Sneers of Christianity."

Before he left the services, Brother Martin was engaged to bring the message to our Homecoming next year.

Wet and cold though it was, we considered this Homecoming one of our best.

AUBURN YOUTH IS KILLED WHILE MOVING BUILDING

Injuries suffered when crushed under the wheel of a house-moving trailer resulted in the death of a 14-year-old Auburn boy, Richard Lee Patee, in hospital at Angola, last Wednesday. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mearl Patee, of Auburn.

The boy was assisting Abe Mason, of Auburn, in moving a house near Golden Lake in Steuben County. Two other Auburn boys also were helping Mr. Mason. Ray Patee, aged 17, a brother of the deceased youth, and Robert Brandon, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brandon, of Auburn.

They left Auburn with Mr. Mason Wednesday morning. They jacked up the house and were moving it at the time of the accident. Ray was at the wheel of the truck and Robert was riding inside the house on the trailer. Richard, the deceased youth, was riding on a beam between the house and the rear wheel of the trailer. They stopped along the road and when they started again, Richard jumped on the beam, lost his balance and fell under the wheel of the trailer which passed over one leg and his abdomen causing internal injuries from which he died.

Richard was born in Auburn, May 24, 1931, and always had resided there. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mearl Patee two brothers, Wayne, 19, who is in the Army and stationed in the Philippines since February 1st, and Ray, 17, who was driving the truck; one sister, Glenna Belle, aged 16, and a grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Harter, of Newville.

AIRPLANE LANDS IN NEWVILLE

Sunday afternoon, August 19, an airplane circled Newville and gunned its motor over the Fred Saylor home (the former Clark and later Max Doub residence.) The plane picked out the Lloyd Strong oats field for a landing field, but was going too fast the first try, and circled the field again before making a perfect landing. Almost immediately practically the entire town of Newville and community was looking the plane over. The occupants were Mr. Saylor's niece and gentleman friend. After about a half hour's visit with the Saylor family, the plane left Newville and its thrilled inhabitants.

W. F. Benninghoff has purchased a cottage at Hamilton Lake.

BUTLER SCHOOL TEACHERS ANNOUNCED

After considerable hard work, and we are quite sure, some apprehension, Mr. Harding, Superintendent of the local schools, has been able to announce a complete roster of teachers, with the exception of a music teacher for the grades. It is hoped that this position will be filled before school starts, which will be Tuesday, September 4th.

Following is the list of the teachers:

Primary

Mrs. Ruth Kester.
Mrs. Pearl Kanaley.
Mrs. Lucile Smurr.
Miss Dorothy Henkle.
Mrs. Cletis Jenkins.

Elementary

Mr. James Cather.
Mr. Keith Beebe.
Mr. Virgil Hagerty.

High School

Mrs. Lida M. Stage.
Mrs. Prue Oberlin.
Miss Catherine Allmann.
Miss Pauline Metz.
Mr. Harry Unger.
Mr. Kenton McCrory.
Mr. Cletis E. Jenkins.
Mr. Albert Berg.

TWO MEN SUFFER BROKEN RIBS

Mr. Walter Hose suffered several broken ribs when he was thrown against the steering wheel of the tractor he was driving. The front wheels dropped into a wash out unexpectedly and bounced out immediately, causing the painful injury.

Kenneth Roberts was trying to change a heifer's mind about going out of the barn and she gave him such a squeezing that she cracked several of his ribs. He has been having a sore time ever since.

Pfc. Woodrow Stark, who has been on furlough, has reported at Camp Butner, N. C. He expects to be discharged under the point system soon.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Inquiries have been coming in as to how soon the Bugler will stop now that the war is over. The answer is we will continue to publish the Bugler as long as we have men in the service that need this paper. We know, from letters we have received, that this paper, small and insignificant though it may be, means a great deal to our service men. Even if a man is not in actual combat, if he is away from home, he needs this little letter from home. A serviceman said in a letter not so long ago, "I have never been in the hospital, but I have been sick every day I've been in the service." This letter came from overseas and shows the real need of mail from home. Perhaps this paper is needed even more now that the time of waiting to come home rests so heavy on the man overseas, and the man at camp in the States finds it hard to face separation from those he loves. We expect to serve you as long as you need this paper.

We wish to thank Earl Koeppe, Norma Koeppe and June Brown for their help in publishing the last Bugler. If it had not been for their kind assistance, the last Bugler would have been missing. Our regular printer was doing some remodeling and was unable to print the paper for us, so we printed it with a mimeograph and this required some extra help and we appreciate it.

This is the Servicemen's paper. Send us your address or the address of anyone you know in the Service, regardless of creed or race. We gladly send this paper free to any Serviceman.

A Thought for To-day

Thinkers don't drink. Drinkers don't think.

Junior Scoby was home on furlough recently. He is in Oregon now.

CIVILIANS!

We were more than pleased to see Calvin Mansfield in Church August 26, in a blue suit. It looks mighty good to us to see those khaki uniforms put in moth balls.

John Harter appeared the same day in a blue plaid shirt and he said if he had had a red tie, he would have worn it. A red tie would have looked mighty nice with that blue shirt.

WEDDING BELLS

McClish—Mendenhall

Miss Mary McClish and Pfc. James D. Mendenhall, of Butler, Indiana, were united in marriage Saturday, July 14, in Cleveland, Ohio, in a lovely double ring ceremony.

The ceremony took place at 3:00 P.M. in the parsonage of the East Side Christian and Missionary Alliance at 1549 Crawford Road. Rev. John S. Sawin, the pastor, performed the ceremony.

The bride's gown was of marquisette with a sweetheart neckline, full bodice, and floor-length skirt. The sleeves were three-quarter length. She had a finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of red roses interspersed with baby breath. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. John Sawin sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." After the ceremony, as they knelt in prayer, she sang, "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

Among the wedding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Evan Smith and Miss Vernece Campbell, of Cleveland, relatives of the groom, who were formerly of Butler.

The bride was employed by the Magnavox Company in Fort Wayne. Pfc. Mendenhall had just recently returned from a prisoner of war camp in Germany.

BOOCHER—HART

Ida Belle Boocher and Henry Hart were united in marriage at the parsonage of the United Brethren Church at Newville, Sunday afternoon, July 29, at 2:00. The double-ring ceremony was used and Mr. and Mrs. James Rigsby, of near Waterloo, were the attendants. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hart, of near Coburntown, and the bride is the former Ida Belle Carr, formerly of Newville. The groom is employed by the Magnavox Corp. at Ft. Wayne and the bride was recently employed at the Warner Automotive Parts in Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart are making their home in a house trailer in the yard of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carr, of Auburn. Mr. Hart will drive back and forth to work.

KELLER—INLOW

Miss Betty Inlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Inlow, of St. Joe, and Pfc. Harold L. Keller, son of Mrs. Edith Keller, of Auburn, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening, August 25, by the Rev. Robinson at the Church of Christ Parsonage in Butler.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Haifley, of Auburn. The bride's mother, Mrs. O. E. Inlow, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Edith Keller, were in attendance at the ceremony. Pfc. Keller is home from the European Theatre of War on a 30-day leave and is to report at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, on Sept. 7.

27, for Santa Ana, California, assignment.

Albert Rowe, wife, and twin daughters, Mary Anne and Mossie Ethel, were callers in the Strong home Sunday. He stated that his brother, Ralph, is living in Florida. He has not been discharged.

There are about fourteen
Mexican men and women living in the first house west of

to help in the harvesting of the tomatoes. They will return to Mexico after the harvest.

The weather being too wet and cold in the latter part of April and fore part of May,
an apple tree on the Fay Hanna farm decided to blossom in the hottest days of July and August. We hope this means a late fall.

us of the time several years ago when just the four (they weren't married then) went to

TO OUR BOYS IN THE ARMED SERVICE

NUMBER 14

BUSINESS CENTER OF NEWVILLE

Note—Alfred Smith going to the store. Cora Rex's dog near Irmo Miller.

SMITH'S GENERAL STORE

I like to go to the Newville store
And gaze around a bit,
It's nothing less than marvelous
The things you'll find in it.

From cake to cheese and thread to gas,
Everything you need for the home.
And if you have eggs or poultry to sell
Just call 4F3 on the Butler phone.

Every night the store is crowded
With men from town and farms,
They enjoy the social atmosphere
Where they can spin some yarns.

'Tis a place where you are welcome
To spend your time or money;
A place to buy a handkerchief
Or purchase a pound of honey.

PRAYER SERVICES

In answer to inquiries as to whether we are still holding prayer services for those in the service, we say, "Yes, indeed we are." A letter recently received from a sailor says, in part: "Do they still have their services for the service men now or have they dropped it? It always seems nice to have the Church think of the service men over here. It means quite a bit when you are over here looking and thinking of home and everything it means to you. You really learn to appreciate things in a place like this."

We have not forgotten our boys yet and we hope we never do get callous and thoughtless enough to forget to do the things we can do for those who are sacrificing their time, happiness, and very lives for us who stay at home and wait.

John Black and Harry Strong are at Fort Riley, Kansas. They both expect to be moved November 1 and are hoping to be sent to the same place, which we think is hoping against hope.

T/Sgt. Kenneth Richmond, who has been in service since July, 1941, expects to be home soon. He is to be discharged under the point system. He has been in the Panama Canal Zone for 19 months.

S/Sgt. Jack Richmond was recently discharged at Camp Atterbury. He has been in service for three and one-half years. He was in England about 27 months. He is now visiting friends in New York.

Norman Ayers has been promoted to civilian clothes after having been in the Army for several years. He has been overseas for a long time and looks just like he did when he left. His first Sunday at home was spent in the Church services with his friend, Miss Doris Micher, of Toledo, Ohio.

S/Sgt. William Richards arrived home October 20 with his discharge papers from the Army Air Forces. He was honorably discharged from the separation center maintained at Santa Ana, California. He has been in the service 3½ years, and three years and two months of that time were spent in the Panama Canal Zone. He served with the Sixth Air Force as a mechanic. He was awarded the good conduct ribbon and the American Theatre Ribbon.

Pvt. Estil Ellis Taylor is at LaHavre, France waiting for a ship to bring him home.

T/4 Walter Irvin left Oct. 19 for Camp Atterbury, and to be sent from there to Camp Campbell, Kentucky, for further assignment or a discharge.

James Hamilton has been discharged from the Navy. We expect he voiced the sentiments of a lot of returned service men when he said: "Boy! Saint Joe sure is dead, isn't it?"

Sgt. Richard Davis, of the U. S. Army, went through the typhoon which swept Okinawa early this month. In a letter to his parents, he stated that considerable property damage occurred. The soldiers fled from their places of shelter to nearby Jap dugouts, where they stood in water waist deep and looked out through windows and doors at flying debris that was swept by during the gale.

A Heap O' Lovin'

It takes a heap o' lovin'
In a house to make a home.
A heap of real forgivin',
No matter where you roam.
It may be just a cottage
With no luxuries within,
Where big and brawny muscle
Every day the bread must win
To feed the hungry family
That's comin' right along,
And needs a heap o' learnin'
To know the right from wrong.

There ain't no use o' striken'
And a jawin' all the time,
And make the little feller think
He's done an awful crime.
And with a heap o' fistin'
Sort o' knock him into place.
And always goin' round
With a sour lookin' face.
It still will be a cottage
From the cellar to the dome.
It still may sleep and feed ye,
But it can't be called a home.
For it takes a heap o' lovin'
And the wearin' of a smile
To make that home an Eden
And a blessin' all the while.

It's love that makes the roses
Smell the sweeter at your door.
It's love that lifts the shaders
When they fall across your door.
It's love that makes the cottage
Like the biggest palace seem.
Makes life worth livin'
Makes you plan for it and dream.
And when you get to grumblin'
'Bout something you don't like,
It sort o' holds you steady
And from goin' on a strike.

It's worth you couldn't reckon
If you figgered all the year.
Why, it's worth a million dollars
Just to get a smile of cheer.
And when you get a sorrow
You don't know how to bear
Maybe—in the corner
There stands a vacant chair,
But keep right on your lovin'
For the memory is sweet
And it sure will be a blessing
And make your life complete.
For you'll find to-day and always,
No matter where you roam,
That it takes a heap o' lovin'
In a house to make a home.

This was read for our Church services October 21 by Norma Koeppe. We consider it an outstanding poem and we pass it on to you.

A Thought for Today

The difference between listening to a radio sermon and going to Church is the same difference between calling a girl on the telephone and spending an evening with her.

Mr. Hagerty was the only candidate for the post. He will resign as teacher in a Butler school, a position he has held for some years, but he will continue to live in Butler. The term for which he was elected as attendance officer is for one year.

ROBERT JOHN LARKIN MEMORIAL CLOCK

A large electric clock has been hung on the front wall of the Church just over the piano, between the door and the archway. This clock was bought with money given to the Church by Mrs. Larkin for her son, Robert, who was killed in action in August, 1944. This clock was obtained some time ago but efforts were being made to have an inscription of metal attached. Because of metal shortage, this has not been possible so far, but a promise was made, of being able to get it made in about six months. It was decided to hang the clock and use it until the metal piece can be obtained. It seems fitting and proper that Bob should tell us every time we look at the clock that the time is passing and "Now is the acceptable time."

"The Old St. Joe"

The St. Joe looking East from the bridge.

The "Old Swimmin' Hole" can be seen in the distance.

How dear to our hearts is the Old St. Joe,
The river of our Childhood.
High on its banks a town was built.
Which has been both bad and good.

A curving road is Main Street
And the river must have loved this little town
For it nestles close along one side
And lingeringly winds its way around.

In the hearts of all who have lived here,
The river holds an important place,
For all the joys it has given
Are too numerous to trace.

Life goes on as it did before
In this little town we love.
People fish and swim, fight and laugh,
And pray to the same God above.

The schoolboy listlessly turns the page
As the Spring bird's song fills the room.
He fidgets his knife and fidgets in his seat,
Knowing that the ice will be moving soon.

As the violets nod to the river and the pussy
willow bursts its shell,
The boy digs worms for his modest hook,
And his father dreams of the "big one" that got away

As he seins for minnows in the brook.

In the heat of the Summer,
The boy's feet fly in the race
(And he sheds his clothes on the way)
To be first to dive into the river's warm embrace.

Along the river's shady banks,
The lovers stroll hand in hand.
They pledge their love and seal it with a kiss,
While the river sighs and plays music grand.

Summer passes and the trapper comes forth
To keep the river company until Winter closes in.

The hunter joins the trapper and the echoes
With the gun's sharp crack and the ~~god's~~ dog's howling din.

BOTH TRUE AND FALSE

Scripture Lesson: Matt. 27: 36-44. Text Verse, Matt. 27: 42a. There is a fascinating game we love to play in these times called, "True Or False." It is not only a game, but is used by many professors in giving exams. It makes one use his wits to consider every word carefully lest he be mistaken in the meaning of a question through some slight change in a word or the phraseology of the question. This is an age-old sport first used by Satan, Gen. 3: 4. "And the Serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall NOT surely die." The failure of Eve to recognize the significance of that one little three-letter word "NOT," which Satan had interpolated, has cursed the world for 6000 years.

In our text we have a slightly different use of the same technique. "He saved others; Himself He cannot save." Here is a statement that is both true and false! Let us look at it from two angles.

First the eulogy, "He saved others." This is one of the grandest themes on which the mind of man has been permitted to dwell down thru the ages. He saved others from many dangers, chief of which may be thus classified. Improper self-evaluation. Solomon's glory was compared to the odornment of the lilies of the field, to the detriment of the raiment of Solomon. The adornment of God is greater than all the wealth of the world can purchase, for it consists of a pure heart and a clean soul. He saved from the danger of improper influence. We are influenced to think one way or another about everyone we met. If we meet a small child we may think he is promising, that he has splendid inclinations, or, on the other hand, that he has bad inclinations. That under the proper Spiritual environment and contact with the Gospel, not only children, but mature individuals may be lifted from degradation and shame to the level of free men in Christ Jesus.

He saved us from improper physical living. From the defilement of alcohol, "Be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;" also I Cor. 6: 10. But not only from strong drink, but anything that would defile the body. "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are." This would seem to teach against another widespread habit, the use of tobacco, for certainly there is no one who knows the facts concerning the weed, who will contend that it does not defile the body. Again, this warning from Paul. "Abstain from all appearance of evil." I Thes. coupled with Christ's teaching in the Sermon on the Mount, will save us from the dissipation of riotous and adulterous living.

He saved us from improper evaluation of Spiritual things. He taught the importance of Spiritual things in the home. Recall the story of Jesus in the home of Mary and Martha, how the Lord said one thing was needful, and Mary had chosen this better part. Here He approved the teaching of Spiritual things in the home. Prayer, too, was to be a part of home life. "But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet." Matt. 6: 6. He taught by precept and example the need for worship in the home. John 4: 20-24; Matt. 4: 10. He also saved us from improper evaluation of Spiritual things in worship. Taught that man's way was vain, Matt. 15: 9, that there was but one proper way to worship, that way set forth in John 4: 24. He added a new commandment for us by saying, "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." John 13: 34. Part of the Kingdom of God is in each Christian and for that reason it is not becoming to criticize each other's faults, we all have them. Rather, let us "bear one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ."

While on earth, He saved others from disease. His healing ministry began simultaneously with His Spiritual ministry. We find Him healing in the Synagogue at Capernaum, in Peter's house, at the Pool of Bethesda, blind Bartimaeus by the roadside, the woman with the issue of blood, and numerous others, even to calling back some from death and the grave. He gave this same power to the twelve and to the seventy as He sent them forth. But greatest of all, He saved others from sin and Spiritual death. Read the marvelous story of the man who was palsied, brot by four men who let him down through the roof, that he might see the Master. To him Jesus said. "Son, thy sins be forgiven thee." He then proved to the doubting scribes and Pharisees His ability to forgive sins by healing the paralytic. Mark 3: 3-12. In His great ministry He spoke these words. "I came not to be ministered unto, but to minister." Matt. 20: 28. Again, "Because I live ye shall live also." John 14: 19. Paul's great chapter on immortality, the fifteenth chapter of I. Cor., contains these comforting words, "Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin, the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through Jesus Christ our Lord." True, "the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

First then, the eulogy, "He saved others."

Secondly, the slander, "Himself He cannot save." This is one of the most despicable calumnies of all time. In the outstanding sense of the thought it contains a vile falsehood, for Christ is Almighty! Had the temptation of the Devil found Him vulnerable? Had the lack of food deterred Him in the feeding of the five thousand? Did not the forces of nature bend themselves to His will in the stilling of the tempest? Would not the same power which He used so freely upon others in the healing of lepers, giving sight to the blind, curing the lame, opening ears of the deaf, raising the dead, have been as potent for His own use? He claimed it would. John 10: 17b, 18. I lay down my life that I may take it up again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down myself." "Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and He shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels?" Matt 26: 53. No more palpable slander was ever spoken against anyone than this against our Lord. Yet it is one of the most glorious truths it has been the privilege of man to ponder.

In this second sense Jesus "could not save Himself." He could not save Himself because He was appointed to this end. "For this cause came I into the world." John 12: 27. It was for His testimony to the truth that He was crucified, and Jesus said, "To this end was I born." John 18: 37. "I came to give my life a ransom for many." Mark 10: 45. He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before his shearers is dumb, so opened He not His mouth." "...He was cut off from the land of the living; for the transgression of my people was He stricken." Isaiah 53. He could not save Himself because He was desirous of becoming our Savior, to be the Savior of others, if you please. "I came that you might have life..." "I came to... save that which was lost." "Because I live, ye shall live also."

How little the murderers of the Lord of Glory realized the mixture of truth and falsehood which they spoke. How great the blessing to a sin-sore, soul-sick, Spiritually impoverished world!

"For the joy set before Him," that is, seeing men and women, boys and girls, born anew into a glorious life, "He endured the cross, though He despised the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the Majesty on High." And today there are millions joined in one hope around the world praising in everlasting song and story, the blessed name of Jesus. Is this blessed hope yours, my friend, have you learned to praise His name? Jesus calls you, the promise of life everlasting awaits you, why not now?

—Your Sky Pilot.

OVER THE BACK FENCE

Alice Moore has been among those sick in the last month.

Ivan Smith has been suffering with an infected hand. He is now on the road to recovery.

Richard Roberts joined the Army recently and is now stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif. He enlisted for three years.

Revival services are in progress at Farmer, Ohio. Newville attended Monday evening Nov. 26. A fine crowd made the trip.

Brother W. E. Best is the owner of one of the first Fords to make their appearance. He is gradually getting used to the idea of not having "to get out and get under" every time he leaves home.

John Harer went to the hospital at Dayton, Ohio, for another amputation of his right leg. He has been there three weeks waiting for his leg to improve. It has not, as yet, been in proper condition for the operation.

Thanksgiving Day was a happy one for the Benner children. They were all together for Thanksgiving dinner at their grandmother's, Mrs. Claude Tarney, in Fort Wayne. They came up to see their father, Art Benner, on Saturday. It was the first reunion of the whole family since their mother's death broke up the home.

Our migrating population is gradually moving to Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Casebere left November 12 and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Burl Enzor are expecting to leave the week of November 26. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Casebere are leaving soon and all are spending the Winter in or near Bradenton, Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Theron Imhoff left Nov. 25 for a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Casebere.

Wayne Nicholls is at home after three years and four months of absence, with a discharge.

Bill and Harry Mansfield were at home together recently. Henry has received his discharge from the Army.

A most successful turkey crop has just been turned off by Mr. and Mrs. Burn Enzor. They raised 1,829 turkeys to average 17¼ pounds, out of 2,000.

Gale Benner, who has been living with, and working for, Lloyd Strong this last Summer, has gone to Ft. Wayne to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Tarney.

Gladys Stewart and Wilbur Akey were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, Nov. 25, in a beautiful church wedding held in the St. Joe Church of Christ. John Lee Sennett performed the single ring ceremony.

Gale Benner had a narrow escape from death recently. He became entangled in the rolls of Lloyd Strong's corn picker and his clothes were stripped from him. The tractor was stopped immediately, but Gale suffered abrasions on his shins and multiple bruises. One artic was torn from his foot. We call that close enough.

A company with house trailer and large crane moved in on the former Mack Cole farm Nov. 8 and scalped a high bank near the river and proceeded digging and piling gravel. After a couple of days work, they quit because of too much fine sand. There was gravel dipped from the river bed near the same place in 1922 for the county road department.

Beavers have been discovered along the river northeast of Newville since the trapping season has opened. Cottonwood trees over 8 inches thick have been cut off and felled into the river. Small soft maple and quaking aspen trees have been chewed off and dragged to the river and poked in among tree ootrs for Winter use. Being closed season on beavers, they are protected by law.

When the ice is thick enough "to carry,"
Then young and old flock to the river.
They skate and slide and "crack the whip"
Until the cold creeps in and they begin to shiver.

How dear to our hearts is the Old St. Joe
That has given such sweet memories. (lives
There we can trace the happy hours of our
And our names on some of the trees.

EDITOR'S CORNER

A thought for today

Some people are like buzzards; they never go near a church unless somebody dies.

HAROLD NELSON KILLED ON WAY HOME

Pfc. Harold V. Nelson, 22, was killed Nov. 2 near Hattiesburg, Miss. After training several months in the United States and serving 18 months overseas, he returned to Camp Shelby, Miss., and received his discharge there. He bought a motorcycle with which to come home, but met with an accident on the way home, near Hattiesburg, and died in the Methodist Hospital there.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to this bereaved family whose great joy was so tragically turned to grief.

BAPTIZED INTO CHURCH

Sunday, Nov. 25, was a red letter day for the Church at Newville. Mrs. Helen Smith and Mrs. Iola Lyon were buried with Christ in Christian baptism by Brother W. E. Best. Helen made her confession at the morning services and Iola made her confession at the evening invitation, and both were baptized immediately after the Servicemen's prayer service.

NO PULPIT FURNITURE

The furniture factory at Archbold, Ohio, burned recently, causing disappointment in the Newville Church. We were expecting our new pulpit furniture the first of the year, but this means we are right back where we were a year ago. This furniture was to have been bought with the money received from the sale of the Charles Reign Scoville property some time ago. We hope other arrangements will soon be made for the disposition of this money.

FORMER NEWVILLE RESIDENT DIES

Drayton D. Loomis died November 21, of sugar diabetes in the Sanders Hospital in Auburn. He was 68 years old.

He was born near Newville and except for about 15 years, lived in this community all of his life.

He is survived by his wife, Anna, five daughters, seven sons, thirty-one grandchildren, one great grandson, one sister, and two brothers, John, of Butler, and Olan, who lives at Newville.

He was buried in the Eddy Cemetery north of Butler.

YOUTH RALLY

Because it was impossible for Ashley to entertain the youth rally this month, and because there was not enough time to find another place for it, Newville was the host church again. Mr. E. L. Eldridge, of Angola, brought the message to about 110 young folks.

Newville showed her usual good sportsmanship spirit by not competing for the plaque. Butler and Garrett tied with 26 each in attendance. They will each have the plaque two weeks.

OVER THE BACK FENCE

Prayer services for our Servicemen were held Nov. 25.

Mrs. Nellie Nelson is very poorly having suffered a stroke of paralysis.

Word from Illinois says that Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Schondelmayer are holding evangelistic services this Winter with marked success. Their home is at Saint Joseph, Illinois, now.

Cards of cheer were sent this month to some of the sick. Those that received cards were Mrs. Minnie Glawe, Mrs. Nettie Abel, Mrs. Thad Brown, Mrs. Clara Brunson, Mrs. Minnie Koeppe, and Mrs. Harry Hendershot. The reports we heard, showed that 16 cards were received by each one.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Strong went to Camp Pickett, Virginia, Nov. 8, to bid Harry Strong goodbye. He left Camp Pickett Nov. 12 for overseas. Because Italian prisoners were put on the same ship, he thought he might be headed for Italy. While there, they met Lester and John Black, who have been put in the same company and are now sleeping in the same barracks. They expect to soon be shipped overseas together. Grant Strong drove to Camp Pickett Sunday afternoon from the Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., and was there to see Harry leave Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Strong rode back to Maryland with Grant and came home November 18.

Three Reasons

A young soldier reports that he joined the army for three reasons: "First, I wanted to defend my country. Second, I knew it would build me up physically. Third, they came and got me."

The reason there is always a lot of room at the top is because so many that reach there fall asleep and tumble off.

"FUN" by FARRELL

Just before a recent skirmish on a Pacific Island, the commanding officer shouted: "The Japs are coming, men, but we're outnumbered four to one, so do your stuff."

Old Joe, a Tennessee mountaineer, began to blaze away, but in about five minutes he stopped and leaned his rifle up against a rock.

"What's the matter?" yelled the officer.

"Wall, I got my four," said Joe.

Teacher: "Do you like to come to Sunday School, Mary?"

Mary: "Yes, sir."

Teacher: "What do you expect to learn today?"

Mary: "The date of the picnic."

"I'd like a couple of hard boiled eggs to take out, said the sailor to the girl at the lunch counter.

"All right," replied the girl with a smile, "but you'll have to wait. Mamie and me don't get off till 10."

Teacher: "James, have you whispered while I was out of the room?"

James: "Only wunst, mam."

Teacher: "Should James say 'wunst,' Helen?"

Helen: "No'm, he should 'uv said 'twicet.'"

Daughter: "Did you ever hear anything so wonderful?" (as the radio ground out the latest swing.)

Father: "Can't say I have, although I once heard a collision between a truck-load of empty milk cans and a car filled with ducks."

The car that cost us $400 second-hand, before the war, has repair bills on it that total almost that amount, which means 'it isn't the original cost but it's the up-keep.'

FRED LEIGHTY DIES

We are sorry to have to announce the death of our printer, Fred Leighty. He was struck by an automobile on St. Joe's main street and lived only a few hours after the accident. Fred has printed our paper for us when no one else would consider the job. We hereby pay our respects to one who served us all for more than two years, and we offer our deep sympathy to his bereaved wife.

WOODCOX-HARTER

Miss Eva Maxine Woodcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcox, of St. Joe, and Orlin Robert Harter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter, of Newville, were united in marriage at the home of Mr. William Best, pastor of the Newville Church of Christ, on December 20. The double ring ceremony was used. Both the parents of the bride and groom attended.

After having lunch at the home of the bride, the happy couple left for a short trip, keeping their destination a secret.

The young people are both graduates of the 1940 class of the St. Joe High School.

After three years in the South Pacific area, Bob is happily preparing his home for occupation for about the middle of January. They have purchased the former Terry Traxler home.

MOORE-DILLANDER

Miss Alice Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Moore, of south of Newville, and Pfc. Herbert Dillander, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. William Dillander, of West Point, Kentucky, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, at 6:00 p. m. December 25, by Mr. E. O. McSherry, pastor of the Newville United Brethren Church. The double ring ceremony was used.

The bride was dressed in a floor length white chiffon gown over taffeta, white slippers, and a white lace veil. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and had her hair surrounded by white taffeta streamers.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hose. Mrs. Hose wore a long white gown of taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums and babies breath surrounded by yellow taffeta streamers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Ice cream and cake were served.

The bride is a graduate of the 1943 graduating class of the St. Joe High School. She has been employed at the Magnavox Company in Ft. Wayne.

The groom served two and one-half years in the army, including 19 months in the European theater of war. He has been given a 90-day furlough and is to report at Camp Atterbury for further assignment March 14.

The newlyweds expect to leave in the near future to spend several weeks visiting relatives and friends in Kentucky.

SCHOOL OF EXPERIENCE

At the Enid, Okla., Army airfield, a very young combat returnee with a sleeve full of overseas stripes was asked where he came from. "I was born in Brooklyn," he replied, "and raised in New Guinea."—Contributed by Sgt. John T. Schopen.

Mrs. Evelyn Hoff placed her membership with the Newville congregation December 2. We are glad to welcome Mrs. Hoff and extend to her the Christian hand of Fellowship.

W. E. BEST ENTERS NEW FIELD

On December 5, Brother Best tendered his resignation to the church, with the desire to leave the first of the year if the church saw fit. Since he would not reconsider his resignation, it was voted to grant his wish.

On December 31, Brother and Sister Best had their earthly possessions loaded into a moving van, sent from Coldwater, Michigan, and followed the truck to their new home at 27 East Pearl Street, Coldwater.

Mr. Best has been untiring in his efforts to serve the Lord at Newville. His sermons have been true to the gospel, inspiring, and well-delivered. He spared not himself or his car in his tireless efforts calling on all the people and serving the Lord's Supper in homes and hospitals where needed. He patiently endured all hardships and obstacles.

Mrs. Best has been a faithful companion. Her quest and tender compassion for all was appreciated by all who knew her.

This is a staggering loss for the church, and community round about will greatly miss their presence. We can only say "Our loss is their gain," and may God bless them both and greatly bless their efforts in Coldwater.

A HAPPY REUNION

Sgt. Eugene Harter arrived home December 21 from Georgia on a Christmas furlough. This is the first time the family has been together for over three years. Bob has been wearing civies for nearly a month. Gene expects a discharge in the near future and we hope that such a separation of this family will not be necessary again.

What good is a bread winner if he doesn't bring home butter?

EDITOR'S CORNER

We print this paper feeling greatly crippled. We have lost, in the last month, our printer and our Sky Pilot. The printer furnished the manual labor, which we will strive to provide in some way. The Sky Pilot furnished the Spiritual side of our paper, which we feel is absolutely necessary, and which looms before us as an insurmountable mountain. We ask you to bear with us, and if you have a criticism, we are always ready for correction. Our greatest desire is to still serve you.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

OUR NEW YEAR WISH: "The Lord bless thee and keep thee; the Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; the Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace."—Numbers 6:24-26.

A GOOD RESOLUTION: During the coming year I will go nowhere I can't take Jesus Christ; I will say nothing I would not want him to hear; I will do nothing I would not want him to know about.

Editor—LuReign Strong, Saint Joe, Indiana.

Associate Editor—Farrel Hanna, Hicksville, Ohio.

1946

As we come to the close of 1945, and face the new year of 1946, many thoughts are in our minds. The year that came to us twelve months ago all fresh and young and full of hope and promise is gone, gone with its opportunities, etc. The burning question that confronts us is, how did we use it? Wisely or unwisely, did we make the best of it? Have our promises, resolutions and purposes socially, domestically, professionally and religiously been fulfilled, executed, carried out?

For instance, in the home, as wife, or husband, brother or sister, father or mother, have we done our share and just a little bit more to make it the sweetest and happiest home in the world?

In the school, shop, factory, place of business, in the service of our country, Bible school, C. E., Church? We don't care to probe too deeply here for the chances are we must all acknowledge some failure somewhere along the line and perhaps there is more carelessness and failure than we can very well excuse.

"Arise and take thy journey"—Deut. 10:11. The new year means that we have another chance to make good. As we look back over the years of the past, we see that the journey of life has been marked by trials, afflictions, disappointments, temptations, sorrows, (especially the last few war years), burdens to bear, tasks to perform, and responsibilities to meet. We cannot hope that the future will be free from such. In fact, they seem to multiply and increase with years. Unknown tasks and responsibilities are before us.

Are we prepared for this journey? At the outset, we must have a definite understanding as to our purpose. Have we found a definite purpose for the coming year? There are three successive levels of a worthy life. First, to make the most of one's self. Secondly, to do good unto others, which is higher than the first. The third level is above all "the chief end of man is to glorify God." No man has fully come to himself until he has fully appreciated this truth.

But understanding the purpose of the journey does not make us fully prepared. Paul said, "Let us . . . lay aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us."

"We cannot be burdened with unnecessary weight. Having laid aside the weight of evil habits and practices (everyone must honestly sort out the filth for himself), we are still not prepared for the journey.

We must have the staff of faith to climb the mountains. Faith in ourselves, faith in others, and faith in God.

We must put on the gown of hope and put the sandals of courage and patience on our feet. (This is no ride in a pull-man). We must have a script filled with food. We will need nourishment, and since man cannot live by bread alone, and as "Every Scripture inspired of God is profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness: that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely unto every good work," we will take the Bible with us.

We are ready now except for a companion, we need a friend. Moses said, "Lord, if thy presence go not with me, send me not up hence." So the "pillar of cloud" went with him. Jesus said, "Lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." So with this friend who will never desert us, let us forget the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

FUN—By Farrell

Two Gurkha soldiers who had volunteered for service with India's sky troops, asked an N. C. O.:

"From what height are we supposed to jump?"

"Five hundred feet," was the reply.

"Nothing doing," they said; "it's too high. Can't we try from 300 feet?"

The N. C. O. explained that from such a low height there was a danger of the parachutes not opening in time, and the Gurkhas broke into smiles.

"Oh, that's different," they said. "We get parachutes, do we?"

The tightwad, out of town on his wife's birthday, sent her a check made out for a million kisses. The wife slightly annoyed at such extreme thrift, wrote back:

Dear Sandy: Thanks for the lovely birthday check. The milkman cashed it this morning.

"We helped ourselves to your apples, old man. Just thought we'd tell you."

"Oh, that's all right," the farmer replied. "While you were in the orchard I helped myself to your spare tire."

Business Is Business!

A priest offered a dollar to the boy who could tell him who was the greatest man in history.

"Christopher Columbus," answered the Italian boy.

"George Washington," answered the American lad.

"Saint Patrick," shouted the Jewish boy.

"The dollar is yours, but why did you say Saint Patrick," asked the priest.

"Right down in my heart I knew it was Moses," said the Jewish boy. "But business is business."

Mark Twain had finished his speech at a dinner party and, on seating himself, a lawyer arose, shoved his hands deep into his trouser pockets, as was his habit, and laughingly inquired of those present: "Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a professional humorist should be so funny?" When the laughter that greeted this sally subsided, Mark Twain drawled out, "Doesn't it strike this company as a little unusual that a lawyer should have his hands in his own pockets?"

Father (who had helped his son with his home work): "What did the teacher say when you showed her the work?"

Johnny: "She said that I was getting more stupid every day."

Joe—What're you looking for?

Perry—A cartridge I dropped.

Joe—Drop it around here?

Perry—Nope. Over by the poopdeck.

Joe—Then what are you looking here for?

Perry—Light's better.

"Those," replied an old sea dog, "are the people who are not going."

A rookie saw three stars on a staff car and walked up to the stern faced man sitting in the back.

THE ROAD BACK

At the Memphis ATC base, a dentist in the Army Clinic told his patient: "I'm trying to get used to civilian practice again, so if I hurt you let me know."—Contributed by Capt. Samuel Kurtzman.

Upon the threshold of this bright New Year

Let's resolve to meet each day without fear,

Give the best that's in us and do each chore

Not worrying about what might be in store.

We might just as well learn to be content

In regard to those things we can't prevent,

For joys galore shall fill the heart of Man

Living in accord with the good Lord's plan.
